“ The first time I saw you with your grandma Brenda you ask me my name you called me Lola from then on
We became the best of pals
You told me stories I laughed
You smiled and made my day
I will forever carry these moments in my heart

“ When Addison was with my sister Brenda. She would always want to be on the phone and talk. She could carry on a very funny interesting conversation. She would have me laughing. She was a joyful loving friendly little girl. Prayers for everyone. She is in the arms of Jesus now. May God be with all the family of little miss Addison

“ Addison was one of a kind she could brighten up the darkest room with her smile...She was the only person that could make her Uncle Billy laugh,,She had a way with words that could make him laugh way up in the night she was the apple of his eye,,,we both love her very much and we could't been more heart broken if it was one of our own grandchildren,,we had got to where we would make sure we was at Bailey's to where we could see her when she came in the store after school...She always had everyone laughing before she left the store...Like I said she was one of a kind.We will miss you dearly Poo-Bear Uncle Billy & Aunt Barbara

“ Addison could brighten any day just with her bright smile and presence. She would sit in my lap and play so innocently on my phone. Little did I know she was smarter than me. She erased half my photos. She laughed and laughed then gave me a big hug.
