“ I cannot say I knew Gracie well but during the brief time we shared she made a strong and memorable impression. Our conversations provided insight to her intelligence, interest in things historical, and keen wit. I wish I'd known her better. To Mark and family, focus not so much on the battle fought but the great times and many years that preceded. My heartfelt condolences to you all. - David Taylor

“ I am so sorry to hear that Gracie has passed, when ever I was in town if she saw me she would always yell my name and come give me a big hug. I thought of her many time, Hope the sisters and Mark and her children keep her always in their hearth as I will. On bright I know she is with her Ben, Thelma, Johnie, Robert and so many more, the party up there has already began with them. Love ya'll

“ Dear Mark, Ellen and Emily, I am so sorry to hear about Grace's passing. I have such good memories of her at soccer games and other activities at St Mary. She was always first to offer help or volunteer for anything or anyone needing help. Never saw her without a smile, quick wit, and loving demeanor. She will be missed in this world. Prayers go out to all of the family.

“ My heart goes out to Mark, Ellen and Emily. I hadn't seen Grace in a long while but she was always the same nice, kind and sweet person every time we ran into each other. When her daughters and my son were younger we were around each other more because of their sports. Mark, Ellen and Emily again I am sorry for your loss but you will be in my prayers and Ms. Grace will be rejoicing in Heaven!
